

Press Release

For Immediate Release

March 24, 2014

To: All Media Outlets & PSA Info

Contact: Center for Latino Farmers
María Giedra 509-453-3157

Farm Risk Management Educational Series II

Yakima – The Center for Latino Farmers, a division of the Rural Community Development Resource (RCDR) is sponsoring a Spanish/English 20-hour Farm Risk Management Series for new and beginning farmers/ranchers. The participants will learn about the importance of managing your farm business, risk awareness programs, insurance products, farm operation legal formation & benefits, corporations, warehouse contracts, farm purchases, property rights, water rights, estate planning, long-term investments and food safety and security.

Date: April 14,15,16,17, 2014

Time: 5:30pm to 9:00pm (every evening)

Place: Howard Johnson Hotel
9 N 9th St., Yakima

As new and beginning farm operators expand their farming or ranching operation, they need assistance to make sure they are aware of the options that best suit them in managing their risk.

This series are made available through a grant from the USDA Beginning Farmers & Ranchers Development Program (BFRDP). The Center for Latino Farmers is recognized nationally for its work in educating Limited English speaking self employed producers and farm workers in WA. State.

Please call 509-453-3157 to register or learn more about the series. Space is limited to 15 farmers/ranchers and is limited to first come first serve.