Solarity Credit Union Voted Best in Kittitas County

Yakima, Washington (June 27, 2014) – Solarity Credit Union has been voted by the Kittitas County community as the Best Financial Institution!

Solarity Credit Union is a not-for-profit financial cooperative with more than 48,000 members, offering an exceptional suite of banking products and services including savings accounts for the entire family, free and dividend checking, free online banking, and mobile banking.

Solarity's competitive rates and low fees make us one of the top mortgage and consumer lenders in Central Washington.

The name, "Solarity" is inspired by our community; the energy of our people, the abundance of our land, and the opportunities that are all around us. Solarity is devoted to providing financial education for members and strengthening the cultural capacity of the communities we serve by supporting many events and non-profits.

Solarity is proud to receive this honor. We look forward to serving our community, providing them the best products and services around!
